

Translation Rights Guide

Autumn/Winter Highlights 2018

New titles and backlist highlights:

- Ageing and Gerontology
- Children, Young People and Families
- Criminology and Criminal Justice
- Economics and Society
- Education
- Environmental Studies
- Health and Social Care
- Politics and International Relations
- Social and Public Policy
- Social Justice
- Social Research Methods
- Social Work
- Sociology
- Urban Planning/Housing

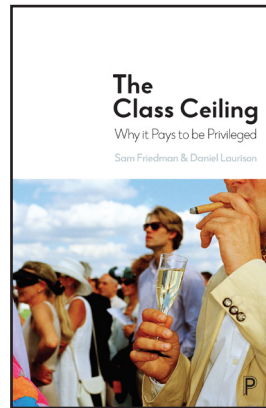

Sociology - World rights available for all titles unless noted

Everyday Europe
Social transnationalism in an unsettled continent

Ettore Recchi, Adrian Favell et al.
This book offers an empirically-based view on Europeans' interconnections in everyday life. It looks at the ways in which EU residents have been getting closer across national frontiers. The book considers how people reconcile their increasing cross-border interconnections in a politically separating Europe of nation states and national interests.

HB: 9781447334200 £80.00
13 February 2019

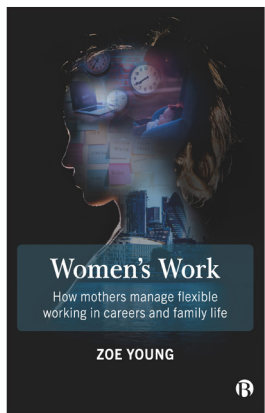

The class ceiling

Why it pays to be privileged
Sam Friedman and Daniel Laurison

This important book takes readers behind the closed doors of elite employers to reveal how class affects who gets to the top. Drawing on 200 interviews across four industries - television, accountancy, architecture, and acting - they explore the complex barriers facing the upwardly mobile.

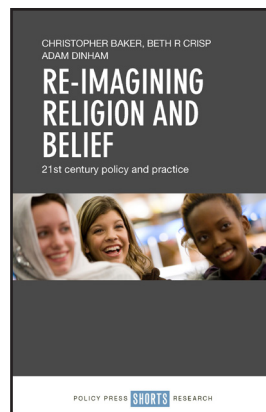

HB: 9781447336068 £19.99
1 January 2019

Women's work
How mothers manage flexible working in careers and family life
Zoe Young

This book is the first to go inside women's work and family lives in a year of working flexibly. The private labours of going part-time, job sharing, and home working are brought to life with vivid personal stories, concluding that there is an opportunity to make employment and family life work better together.

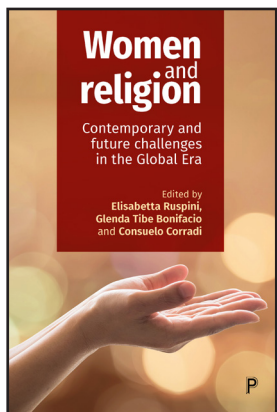

PB: 9781529202038 £24.99
12 September 2018

Re-imagining religion and belief
21st century policy and practice
Christopher Baker, Beth R. Crisp and Adam Dinham

With growing diversity of religion and belief in every sector comes the potential for new dialogues across previously impermeable policy and disciplinary silos. This volume critically challenges policy makers to re-imagine religion and belief as an integral part of public life that contains resources, practices, forms of knowledge and experience.

HB: 9781447347095 £45.00
29 August 2018

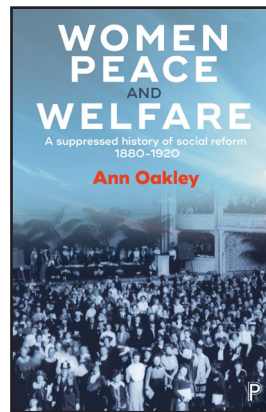

Women and religion
Contemporary and future challenges in the Global Era

Elisabetta Ruspini, Glenda Bonifacio and Consuelo Corradi

This edited collection provides interdisciplinary, global, and multi-religious perspectives on the relationship between women's identities, religion, and social change in the contemporary world.

HB: 9781447336358 £75.00
11 July 2018

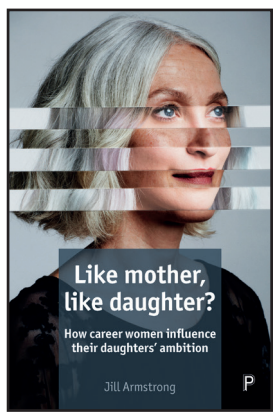

Women, peace and welfare
A suppressed history of social reform, 1880-1920

Ann Oakley

Between 1880 and 1920 many women researched the conditions of social and economic life in Western countries, driven by a vision of a society based on welfare and altruism. Ann Oakley uses these women's stories to bring together the histories of social reform, social science, welfare and pacifism.

HB: 9781447332565 £30.00
8 March 2018

Like mother, like daughter?
How career women influence their daughters' ambition
Jill Armstrong

Women are encouraged to believe that they can occupy top jobs in society by the example of other women thriving in their careers. This book shows that having a mother as a role model does not predict daughters progressing in their own careers. It offers a timely and original perspective on the debate about gender equality in leadership positions.

HB: 9781447334088 £75.00
4 October 2017
PB coming March 2019

Digital sociologies

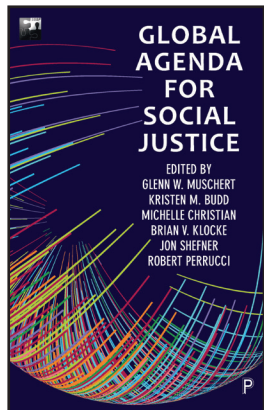

Jessie Daniels, Karen Gregory and Tressie McMillan Cottom

This is the first book to connect digital media technologies in digital sociology to traditional sociology and offers a much needed overview of it. It conceptualises the problems of the digital age in relation to inequality and identity, making it suitable for use for a global audience on a variety of courses.

PB: 9781447329015 £29.99
16 November 2016

Translation rights sold: China

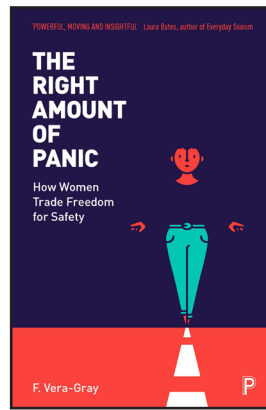

Social Justice

Global agenda for social justice - Volume one
Glenn W. Muschert, Kristen Budd et al.

The global agenda for social justice provides accessible insights into some of the world's most pressing social problems and proposes international public policy responses to these problems. Chapters examine topics such as criminal justice, media concerns, environmental problems, economic problems, and issues concerning sexualities and gender.

PB: 9781447349129 £14.99
15 August 2018

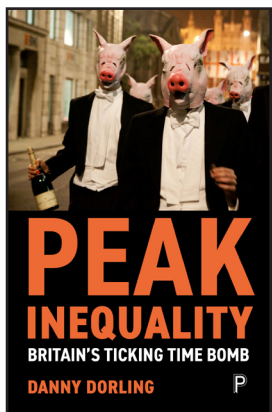

The right amount of panic
How women trade freedom for safety

Fiona Vera-Gray

With real-life accounts of women's experiences, and based on the author's original research, this book challenges the culture of victim-blaming and shows how much energy women put into avoiding sexual violence in public spaces.

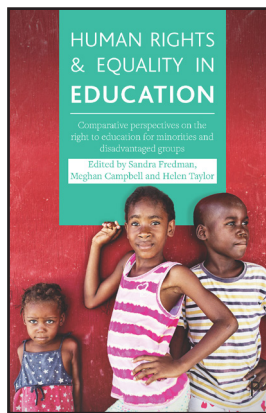

PB: 9781447342298 £14.99
18 July 2018

Peak inequality
Britain's ticking time bomb
Danny Dorling

Dorling brings together new material alongside a selection of his most recent writing on inequality from publications including the Daily Telegraph, the Guardian, New Statesman, Financial Times and the China People's Daily. He explores whether we have now reached 'peak inequality' and concludes by predicting what the future holds for Britain.

PB: 9781447349075 £12.99
17 July 2018

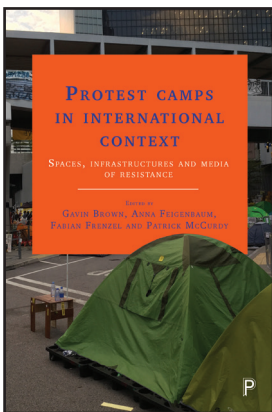

Human rights and equality in education

Comparative perspectives on the right to education for minorities and disadvantaged groups
Sandra Fredman et al.

This interdisciplinary collection explores how a human rights perspective offers new insights and tools into the current obstacles to education. It examines the role of private actors, the need to hold states to account, the balance between religion, culture and education, girls' right to education and the role of courts.

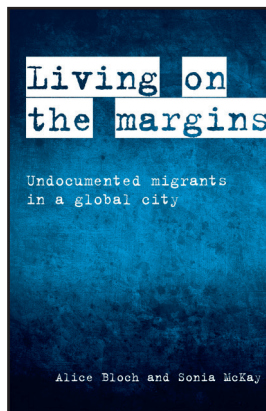

HB: 9781447337638 £75.00
20 June 2018

Protest camps in international context
Spaces, infrastructures and media of resistance
Gavin Brown et al.

Through a series of interdisciplinary case studies, this topical collection is the first to focus on protest camps as unique organisational forms that transcend particular social movements' contexts. The book offers a critical understanding of current protest events and will help create understanding of new global forms of democracy in action.

PB: 9781447329428 £27.99
13 June 2018

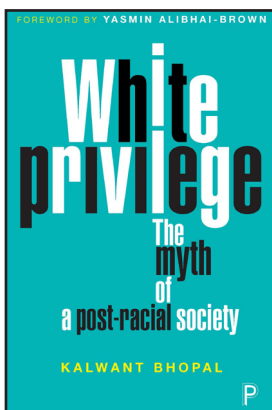

Living on the margins
Undocumented migrants in a global city

Alice Bloch and Sonia McKay

Living on the margins offers a unique insight into the working lives of undocumented (or 'irregular') migrants living in London, and their employers. The research is set in an international context and provides theoretical, policy and empirical analyses.

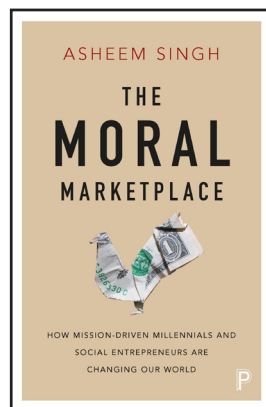

PB: 9781447319375 £24.99
24 May 2017

White privilege
The myth of a post-racial society
Kalwant Bhopal

Why and how do those from black and minority ethnic communities continue to be marginalised? Bhopal explores how neoliberal policy-making has increased discrimination faced by those from non-white backgrounds. This important book examines the impact of race on wider issues of inequality and difference in society.

PB: 9781447335979 £12.99
6 April 2018

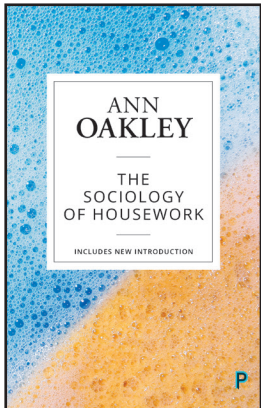

The moral marketplace
How mission-driven millennials and social entrepreneurs are changing our world

Asheem Singh

Author and activist Asheem Singh explores how a movement of tiny ventures evolved into a global humanitarian and financial juggernaut, revealing new ways to fight privilege and inequality, rewire philanthropy, government and even capitalism itself.

PB: 9781447337744 £12.99
24 January 2018

Classic Sociology texts by Ann Oakley and Richard Titmuss reissued in print and digital

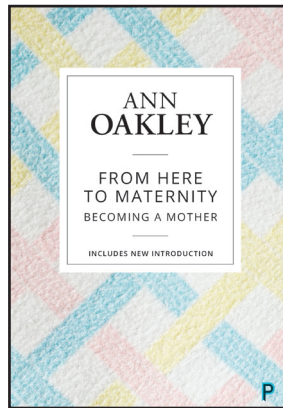

The sociology of housework

Ann Oakley

Ann Oakley analysed the perceptions of 40 urban housewives around housework, their feelings of monotony and fragmentation, the length of their working week, the importance of standards and routines, and their attitudes to different household tasks. This classic book paved the way for the sociological study of many more aspects of women's lives.

HB: 9781447346166 £75.00
31 October 2018

Translation rights sold:
Germany, Holland and Japan

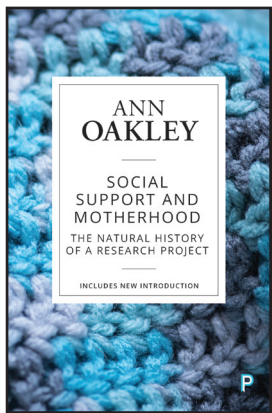

From here to maternity

Becoming a mother

Ann Oakley

Ann Oakley interviewed 60 women to find out what it's really like to have a baby. She discusses whether and why women want to become pregnant, how they imagine motherhood to be, the experience of birth, post-natal depression, feeding and caring routines and the challenges for the domestic division of labour and for fathers.

HB: 9781447349341 £75.00
31 October 2018

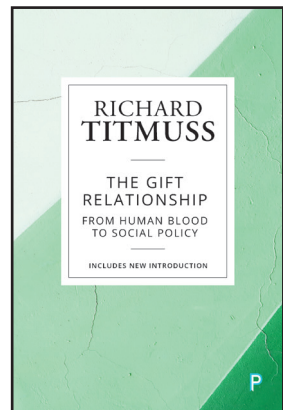

Social support and motherhood

The natural history of a research project

Ann Oakley

Ann Oakley develops a sociology of the research process, telling how a research project on caring and social support is undertaken. It has much resonance for social science researchers and others interested in the experiences of mothers, and the relations between social research, academic knowledge and public policy.

HB: 9781447349457 £75.00
31 October 2018

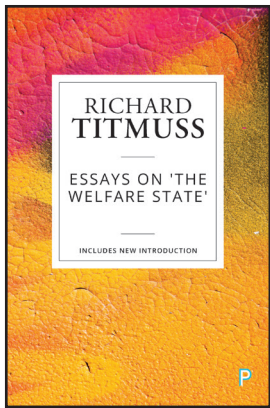

The gift relationship

From human blood to social policy

Richard Titmuss

In this reissued classic, Richard Titmuss compares blood donation in the US and UK, contrasting the British system of reliance on voluntary donors to the American one in which the blood supply is in the hands of for-profit enterprises, concluding that a system based on altruism is safer and more economically efficient.

HB: 9781447349570 £75.00
31 October 2018

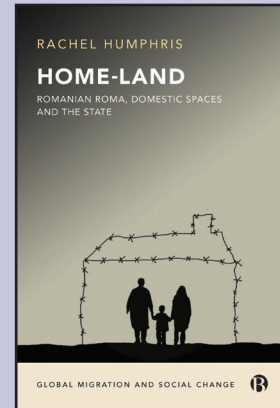

Essays on the welfare state

Richard Titmuss

This reissued classic contains a selection of Richard Titmuss' (1907-1973) most famous writing on social issues. It covers subjects from the position of women in society and changes in family life to the problems of an ageing population, pensions, social security and taxation policy, and the development of the national health service.

HB: 9781447349518 £75.00
31 October 2018

Featured series: Global Migration and Social Change

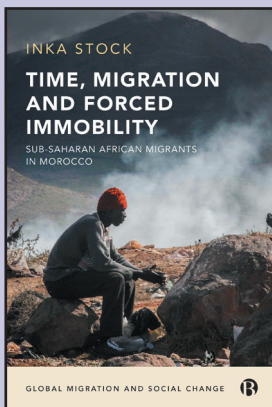

Home-Land: Romanian Roma, domestic spaces and the state

Rachel Humphris

This book is the first intimate ethnography of governing encounters in the home space between Romanian Roma migrants and local frontline workers. It covers the divide between state and family, home-land and home and what this means for the new rules of citizenship.

HB: 9781529201925 £75.00
1 January 2019

Time, migration and forced immobility

Sub-Saharan African migrants in Morocco

Inka Stock

This book is concerned with the effects of migration policy making in Europe on migrants in the Global South and is based on in-depth ethnographic research in Morocco with migrants from Sub-Saharan Africa.

HB: 9781529201970 £75.00
1 June 2019

The politics of compassion

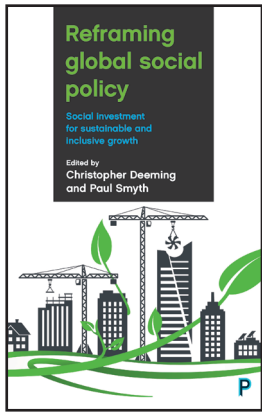

Immigration and asylum policy

Ala Sirriyeh

Through case studies from Australia, Europe and the US, this book explores how emotion is central to understanding the formation of immigration policy. The author looks beyond the 'negative' emotions of fear and hostility to examine the politics of compassion in immigration and asylum policy discourse.

HB: 9781529200423 £75.00
13 June 2018

Social and Public Policy

Reframing global social policy

Social investment for sustainable and inclusive growth

Christopher Deeming and Paul Smyth

This book illustrates how the merging of 'social investment' and 'inclusive growth and development' agendas, together with the environmental imperative of 'sustainability', is forging an important new social policy framework and shaping a new global development agenda.

PB: 9781447332541 £24.99
1 November 2018

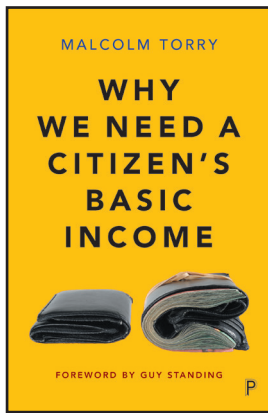

It's basic income

The global debate

Amy Downes and Stewart Lansley

Contributors including Brian Eno, Demos Helsinki, California's Y Combinator Research and prominent academics explore the impact Universal Basic Income could have on work, welfare and inequality in the 21st century.

PB: 9781447343905 £14.99
14 March 2018

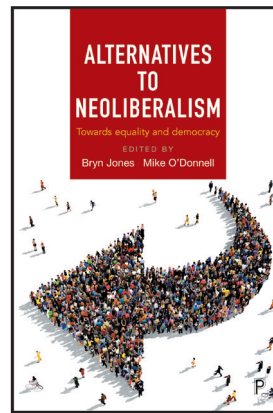

Why we need a Citizen's Basic Income

Malcolm Torry

This fully updated and revised edition of Money for everyone includes new material to move the debate around Basic Income on from one of desirability to that of feasibility and implementation.

PB: 9781447343172 £24.99
9 May 2018

Alternatives to neoliberalism

Towards equality and democracy

Bryn Jones and Mike O'Donnell

With contributions from innovative social and policy analysts including Colin Crouch, Anna Coote, Grahame Thompson and Ted Benton, this collection provides a revised framework for social democracy.

PB: 9781447331179 £25.99
25 July 2018

Translation rights sold: Korea

Social policy first hand

An international introduction to participatory social welfare

Peter Beresford and Sarah Carr

Social policy first hand is the first comprehensive international social policy text from a participatory perspective and presents a new service user-led social policy that addresses the current challenges in welfare provision.

PB: 9781447332367 £24.99
11 July 2018

Good times, bad times

The welfare myth of them and us

John Hills

This revised edition uses extensive updated research and survey evidence to challenge the view of 'skivers versus strivers', showing how much our lives vary not just as we age, but from week-to-week and year-to-year.

PB: 9781447336471 £12.99
22 February 2017

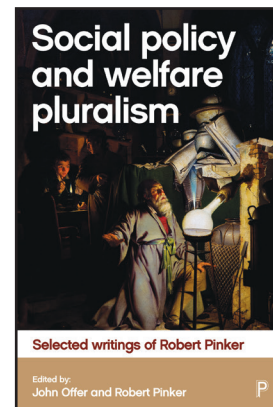

How philanthropy is changing in Europe

Christopher Carnie

Complete with a substantial appendix of sources, this book helps readers understand the revolution in philanthropy in Europe and provides market information for anyone building strategies for fundraising or philanthropy.

PB: 9781447331100 £24.99
18 January 2017

Social policy and welfare pluralism

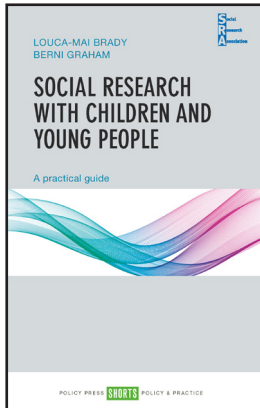

Selected writings of Robert Pinker

John Offer and Robert Pinker

This book presents the first collection of Robert Pinker's influential essays in one edited volume, discussing the key concepts underpinning the study of social policy and the ways in which welfare theories and ideologies, together with public expectations, have shaped the political processes of policy making.

HB: 9781447323556 £80.00
31 October 2017

Social Research Methods

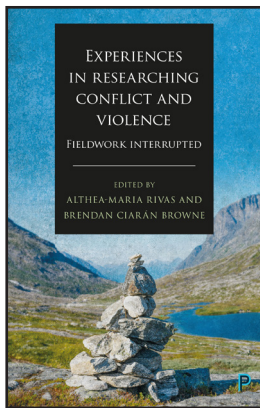

Social research with children and young people

A practical guide

Louca-Mai Brady and Berni Graham

This book provides a practical and concise introductory guide to doing research with children and young people, outlining the benefits and challenges along with key ethical, methodological and other considerations. Throughout, there are practical examples, checklists and top tips to aid the reader.

PB: 9781447351146 £12.99
28 November 2018

Experiences in researching conflict and violence

Fieldwork interrupted

Althea-Maria Rivas and Brendan Ciarán Browne

This collection explores the roles of emotion, violence, uncertainty, identity and positionality in doing research in and on conflict zones, as well as the complexity of methodological choices. It presents a nuanced view of conflict research that addresses the uncomfortable spaces of conflict research and the need for reflection on these issues.

HB: 9781447337683 £80.00
17 January 2018

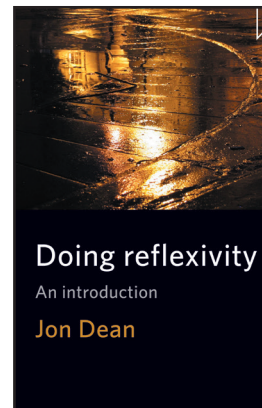

Embodied research in migration studies

Using creative and participatory approaches

Elena Vacchelli

This book highlights embodiment as a qualitative research tool and outlines what it means to do embodied research in research. It shows how using this non-invasive approach with vulnerable research participants can help service users or research participants to be involved in the co-production of services and in participatory research.

HB: 9781447339069 £45.00
4 July 2018

Doing reflexivity

An introduction

Jon Dean

This book provides social science researchers with both a strong rationale for the importance of thinking reflexively and a practical guide to doing it. The first book to build on Pierre Bourdieu's reflexive work, it combines academic analysis with practical examples and case studies. This book will be of interest to researchers and students.

PB: 9781447330851 £26.99
25 January 2017

Helen Kara collection

Helen Kara has been an independent researcher since 1999 and specialises in research methods and ethics. Helen is a Visiting Research Fellow at the UK's National Centre for Research Methods, and a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences.

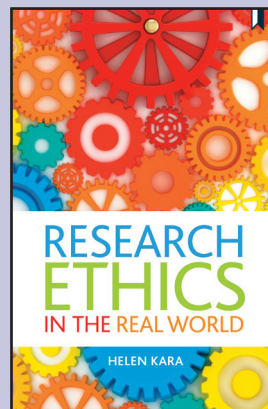

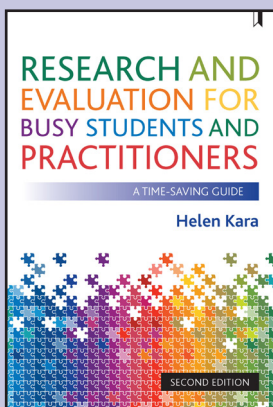

Research and evaluation for busy students and practitioners

A time-saving guide

Helen Kara

Research co-exists with many other tasks and commitments, yet there is more need for people to save time than ever before. Brilliantly attuned to the demands placed on researchers, this 'tutor in a book' considers how students, academics and professionals can save time and stress without compromising the quality or outcomes of their research.

PB: 9781447338413 £23.99
26 April 2017

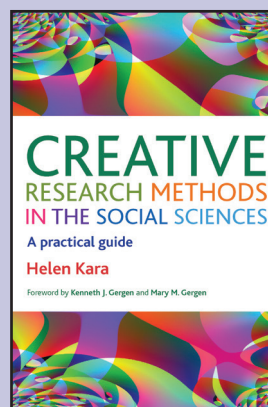

Research ethics in the real world

Euro-Western and Indigenous perspectives

Helen Kara

Research Ethics in the Real World highlights the links between research ethics and individual, social, professional, institutional, and political ethics. Helen Kara considers all stages of the research process and provides guidance for quantitative, qualitative, and mixed-methods researchers about how to act ethically throughout.

PB: 9781447344759 £21.99
14 November 2018

Creative research methods in the social sciences

A practical guide

Helen Kara

This accessible book examines the four areas of creative research methods: arts-based research, research using technology, mixed-method research and transformative research frameworks. It offers examples in practice and shows readers why, when, and how to use them in their research.

PB: 9781447316275 £24.99
10 April 2015

Criminology and Criminal Justice

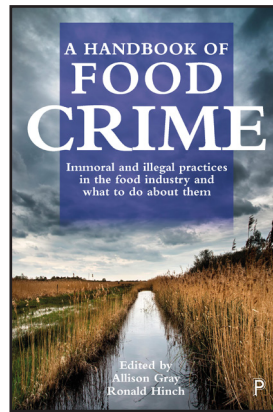

Fake goods, real money

The counterfeiting business and its financial management

Georgios A. Antonopoulos et al.

This book examines the financial and business structures of the counterfeiting business and considers how the internet and e-commerce present financial opportunities for counterfeiters. It explores 'organised crime' and criminal markets, digital technologies and cultural values and practices.

HB: 9781447346968 £40.00
11 April 2018

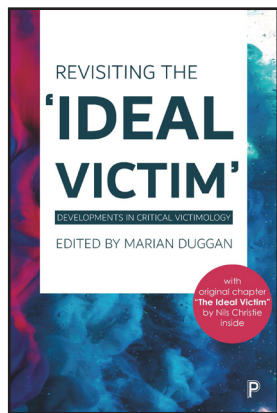

A handbook of food crime Immoral and illegal practices in the food industry and what to do about them

Allison Gray and Ronald Hinch

Gray and Hinch explore the phenomenon of food crime. Through discussions of food safety, food fraud, food insecurity, agricultural labour, livestock welfare, genetically modified foods, food sustainability, food waste, food policy, and food democracy, they problematize current food systems and criticize their underlying ideologies.

HB: 9781447336013 £85.00
9 May 2018

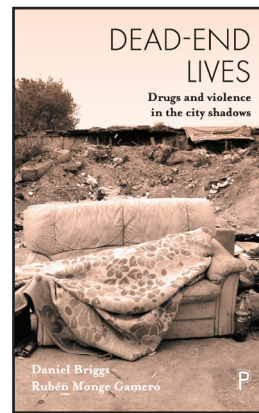

Revisiting the 'Ideal Victim'

Developments in Critical Victimology

Marian Duggan

Nils Christie's (1986) seminal work on the 'Ideal Victim' is reproduced in full in this edited collection of vibrant and provocative essays that respond to and update the concept from a range of thematic positions.

HB: 9781447338765 £75.00
4 July 2018

Dead-end lives Drugs and violence in the city shadows

Daniel Briggs and Rubén Monge Gamero

Using vivid testimonies and images, Briggs and Monge document the stories and situations of the people who live in Valdemingómez, locating their stories in a political, economic and social context of spatial inequality and oppressive social control.

PB: 9781447341697 £16.99
8 November 2017

Featured Series: Studies in Social Harm

The harms of work

An ultra-realist account of the service economy

Anthony Lloyd

This book discusses workplace harm through an ultra-realist lens and examines the connection between individuals, their working conditions and management culture. It investigates the reorganisation of labour markets and the shift to flexibility highlighting working conditions and organisational practices within which multiple harms occur.

HB: 9781529204018 £80.00
31 October 2018

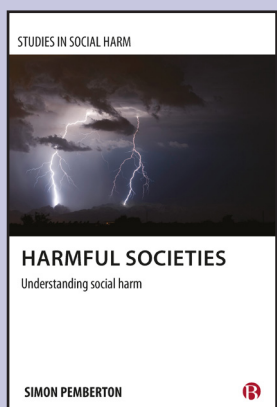

Labour exploitation and work-based harm

Sam Scott

This book provides a critical understanding of contemporary forced labour as a global social problem and argues that it should be located within the broader study of work-based harm.

PB: 9781447322047 £24.99
25 April 2018

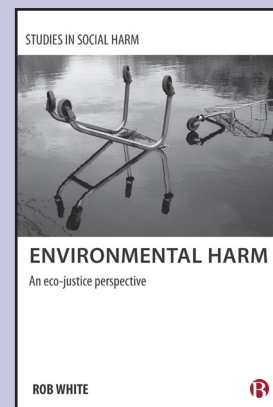

Harmful societies

Understanding social harm

Simon A. Pemberton

This book is the first to theorise and define the social harm concept beyond criminology. It addresses the definition of social harm, the question of responsibility and the methodologies for studying harm, and in doing so provides a platform for future debates, in this series and beyond.

PB: 9781847427953 £23.99
23 March 2016

Environmental harm

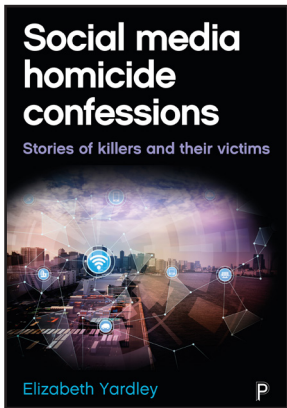

An eco-justice perspective

Rob White

This book provides a systematic and critical discussion of the nature of environmental harm from an eco-justice perspective, challenging conventional criminological definitions of environmental harm. It features examples and illustrations from many national contexts.

PB: 9781447300410 £24.99
4 September 2013

Criminology and Criminal Justice Continued

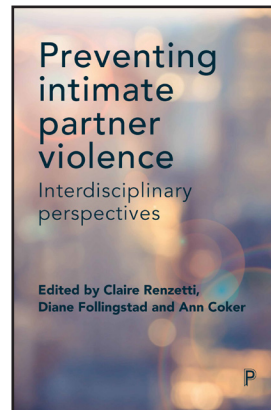

Social media homicide confessions

Stories of killers and their victims
Elizabeth Yardley

The relationship between crime and social media has become an increasingly important topic. This unique book analyses what those involved in homicide do with social media. It investigates the practices of those involved and argues that confessions convey insights into the social and cultural context of contemporary homicide.

PB: 9781447328018 £24.99
20 September 2017

Preventing intimate partner violence

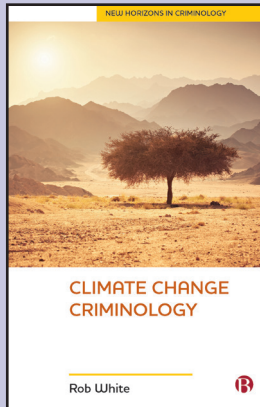

Interdisciplinary perspectives

Claire Renzetti, Diane Follingstad and Ann Coker

This book brings together researchers and practitioners from a range of fields to examine strategies and programs for preventing intimate partner violence (IPV).

PB: 9781447333074 £19.99
12 July 2017

Featured Series: New Horizons in Criminology

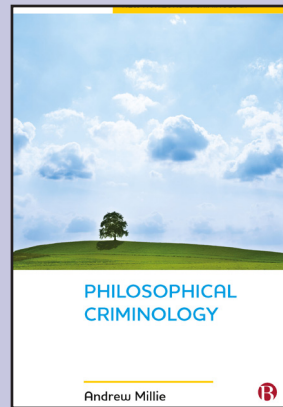

Climate change criminology

Rob White

Leading green criminologist Rob White asks what can be learned from the problem-solving focus of crime prevention to help face the challenges of climate change. Part of the New Horizons in Criminology series.

HB: 9781529203950 £60.00
3 October 2018

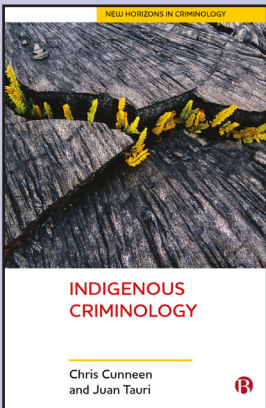

Philosophical criminology

Andrew Millie

This accessible book is structured around six philosophical ideas concerning our relations with others: values, morality, aesthetics, order, rules and respect. Using examples from a range of countries, it provides a platform for engaging with important topical issues.

PB: 9781447323716 £21.99
6 September 2017

Indigenous criminology

Chris Cunneen and Juan Tauri

Indigenous Criminology comprehensively explores Indigenous people's contact with criminal justice systems in a contemporary and historical context. It addresses both the theoretical underpinnings of the development of a specific Indigenous criminology, and canvasses the broader policy and practice implications for criminal justice.

PB: 9781447321767 £21.99
6 September 2017

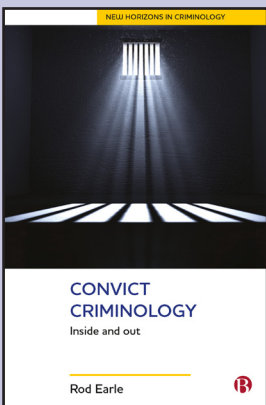

Sports criminology

A critical criminology of sport and games

Nic Groombridge

This is the first book to provide a critical criminological perspective on sport and the connections between sport and crime. Part of the New Horizons in Criminology series, it draws on the inter-disciplinary nature of criminology and incorporates emerging perspectives like social harm, gender and sexuality, and green criminology.

PB: 9781447323167 £21.99
6 September 2017

Convict criminology

Inside and out

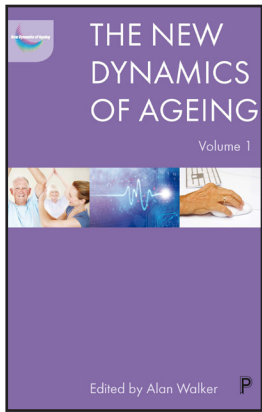

Rod Earle

This is the first single authored book to trace the emergence of Convict Criminology and explore its relevance beyond the USA to the UK and other parts of Europe. It presents uniquely reflexive scholarship, combining personal experience with critical perspectives on contemporary penalogy, with a specific focus on men.

PB: 9781447323655 £21.99
6 September 2017

For more information on all our series, go to the series page on our website:
bristoluniversitypress.co.uk/series

Ageing and Gerontology

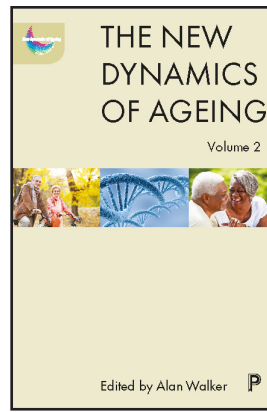

The new dynamics of ageing volume 1

Alan Walker

This book provides a comprehensive multi-disciplinary overview of the very latest research on ageing, concentrating on three major themes: active ageing, design for ageing well, and the relationship between ageing and socio-economic development.

PB: 9781447314738 £24.99
28 February 2018

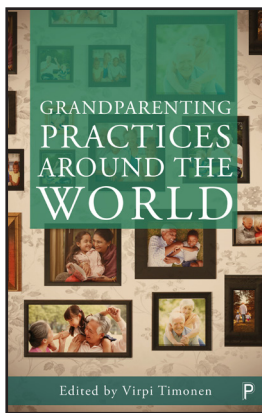

The new dynamics of ageing volume 2

Alan Walker

A comprehensive multi-disciplinary overview of the very latest research on ageing, concentrating on four major themes: autonomy and independence in later life, biology and ageing, food and nutrition and representation of old age.

PB: 9781447314790 £24.99
25 July 2018

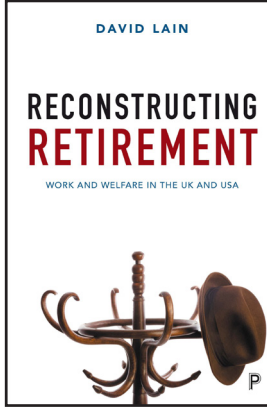

Grandparenting practices around the world

Virpi Timonen

This exciting collection presents an in-depth, up-to-date analysis of the unprecedented phenomenon of increasing numbers of grandparents worldwide, who are co-existing and interacting for longer periods of time with their grandchildren.

HB: 9781447340645 £75.00
14 November 2018

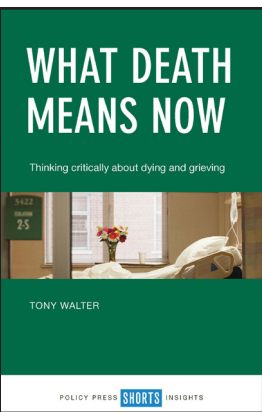

Reconstructing retirement

Work and welfare in the UK and USA

David Lain

This book offers an assessment of the prospects for work and retirement at age 65-plus in the UK and US is essential reading for researchers, students and practitioners interested in the late careers and the future of retirement.

PB: 9781447326199 £24.99
24 January 2018

What death means now

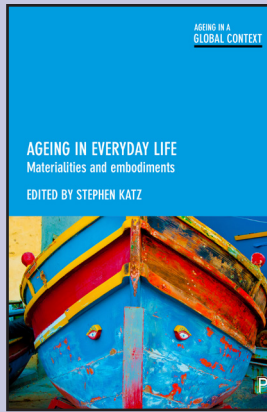

Thinking critically about dying and grieving

Tony Walter

Bringing 25 years of research and teaching in the sociology of death and dying to this important book, Tony Walter engages critically with key questions around this universal fact.

PB: 9781447337362 £9.99
30 August 2017

Featured Series: Ageing in a Global Context

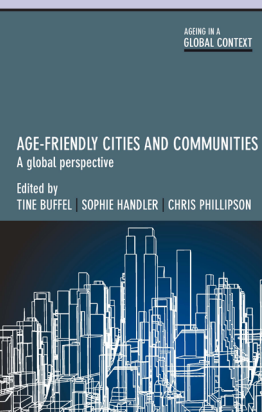

Ageing in everyday life

Materialities and embodiments

Stephen Katz

What does it mean to age in an ageist society? Applying inter-disciplinary perspectives about everyday life to vital issues in older people's lives, this is a critical guide to inform thinking and planning about our ageing futures.

HB: 9781447335917 £75.00
10 June 2018

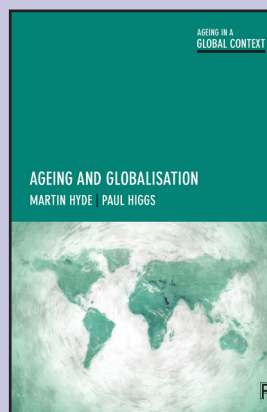

Age-friendly cities and communities

A global perspective

Tine Buffel, Sophie Handler and Chris Phillipson

This important book provides a comprehensive survey of different strategies for developing age-friendly communities, and the extent to which older people themselves can be involved in the co-production of age-friendly policies and practices.

HB: 9781447331315 £75.00
17 January 2018

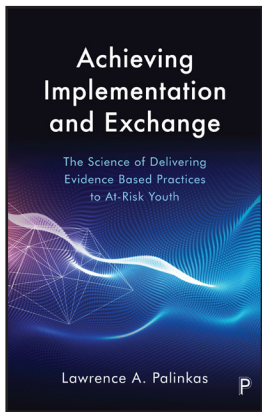

Ageing and globalisation

Martin Hyde and Paul Higgs

This book provides, for the first time, an accessible overview of how population ageing and globalisation - two of the most radical social transformations that have occurred - interact.

PB: 9781447322306 £24.99
6 September 2017

Children, Young People and Families

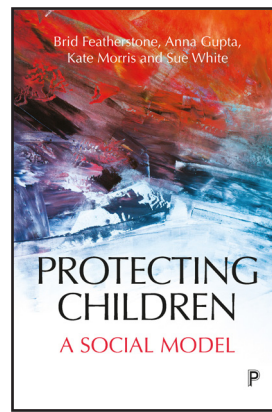

Achieving implementation and exchange

The science of delivering evidence-based practices to at-risk youth

Lawrence A. Palinkas

This book addresses the frustrating gap between research conducted on effective practices and the lack of routine use of such practices. The author introduces a model for reducing this gap.

PB: 9781447338130 £27.99
28 November 2018

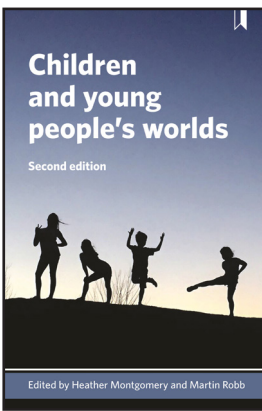

Protecting children

A social model

Brid Featherstone, Anna Gupta, Kate Morris and Susan White

This book explores the policy and practice possibilities offered by a social model of child protection. Drawing on developments in mental health and disability studies, it examines the conceptual, political and practice implications of this new framework.

PB: 9781447332756 £21.99
19 September 2018

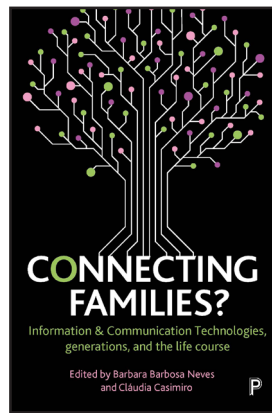

Children and young people's worlds

Second edition

Heather Montgomery and Martin Robb

This substantially updated new edition sets out the changing contexts of children's and young people's lives and encourages students to explore these complexities and contexts. Each chapter challenges students' assumptions and examines crucial issues in the field, such as participation, race, and transnational childhoods.

PB: 9781447348450 £24.99
11 July 2018

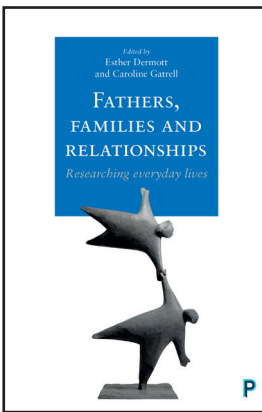

Connecting families?

Information & Communication Technologies, generations, and the life course

Barbara Barbosa Neves and Claudia Casimiro

Taking a life course and generational perspective, this collection examines topics such as work-life balance, transnational families, digital storytelling and mobile parenting. It offers tools that allow for an informed and critical understanding of ICTs and family dynamics.

HB: 9781447339946 £75.00
26 June 2018

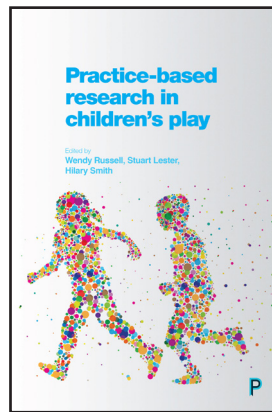

Fathers, families and relationships

Researching everyday lives

Esther Dermott and Caroline Gatrell

Covering a wide range of subjects from non-resident fathers to father engagement in child protection, this major contribution to the field offers unique insights into how to research fathers and fatherhood in contemporary society.

HB: 9781447331476 £75.00
14 March 2018

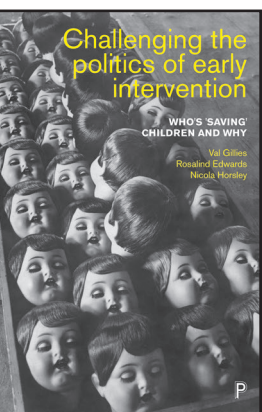

Practice-based research in children's play

Wendy Russell, Stuart Lester and Hilary Smith

Offering a fresh look to complement the dominant singular voice of developmental psychology, this unique collection of 12 research projects carried out in the UK and USA is essential reading for anyone studying or working with children at play.

PB: 9781447330042 £24.99
7 March 2018

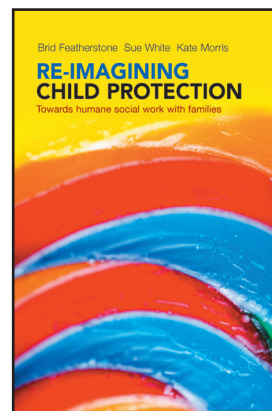

Challenging the politics of early intervention

Who's 'saving' children and why

Val Gillies, Rosalind Edwards and Nicola Horsley

A vital challenge to the internationally accepted policy and practice consensus that intervention to shape parenting in the early years, underpinned by interpretations of brain science, is the way to prevent disadvantage.

PB: 9781447324102 £22.99
23 August 2017

Re-imagining child protection

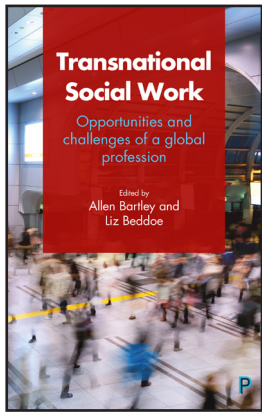

Towards humane social work with families

Brid Featherstone, Susan White and Kate Morris

This book challenges the current child protection culture and calls for family-minded humane practice where children are understood as relational beings, parents are recognized as people with needs and hopes, and families as carrying extraordinary capacities for care and protection.

PB: 9781447308010 £23.99
14 April 2014

Social Work

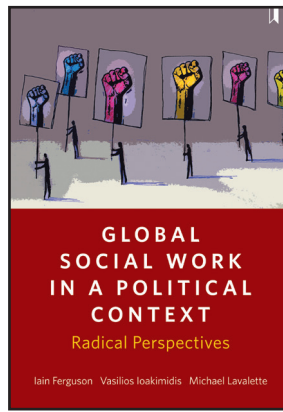

Transnational social work

Opportunities and challenges of a global profession

Allen Bartley and Liz Beddoe

An international comparison of labour markets, migrant professionals and immigration policies, and their interaction in relation to social work.

HB: 9781447333364 £75.00
7 February 2018

Global social work in a political context

Radical perspectives

Iain Ferguson, Vasilios Ioakimidis and Michael Lavalette

How is social work shaped by global issues and international problems, and how should it address them? Taking a radical perspective, this book reveals what we can learn from different approaches from across the globe.

PB: 9781447322672 £24.99
10 January 2018

Research and the social work picture

Ian Shaw

Drawing on evidence from across Europe, Asia and the USA, this accessible book covers how social workers can engage with research and draw on it in practice.

HB: 9781447338895 £75.00
7 February 2018

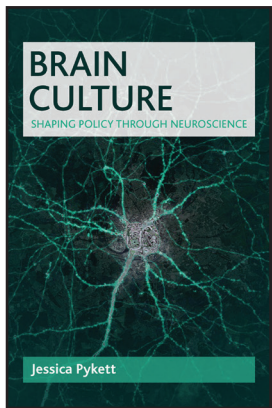

Blinded by science

The social implications of epigenetics and neuroscience

David Wastell and Susan White

This timely book critically examines the capabilities and limitations of new areas of biology, especially epigenetics and neuroscience, that are used as powerful arguments for developing social policy in a particular direction, exploring their implications for policy and practice.

PB: 9781447322344 £26.99
15 March 2017

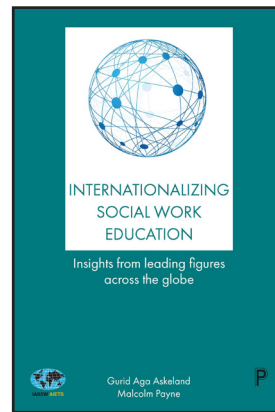

Brain culture

Shaping policy through neuroscience

Jessica Pykett

This unique book offers a timely analysis of the impact of rapidly advancing knowledge about the brain, mind and behaviour on contemporary public policy and practice. It analyses the global spread of research agendas, policy experiments and everyday practice informed by 'brain culture'.

PB: 9781447314059 £26.99
18 January 2017

Internationalizing social work education

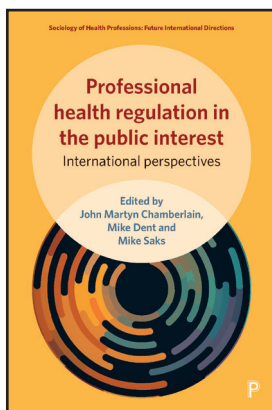

Insights from leading figures across the globe

Gurid Aga Askeland and Malcolm Payne

A historical and contextual account of how social work education became widely adopted in different national and cultural environments.

HB: 9781447328704 £75.00
5 July 2017

Health and Social Care

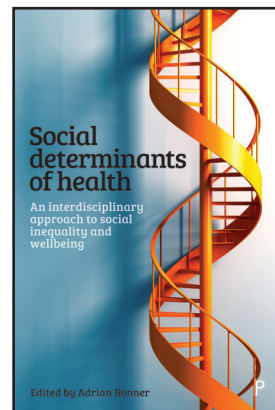

Professional health regulation in the public interest

International perspectives

John Martyn Chamberlain, Mike Dent and Mike Saks

Bringing together leading academics worldwide, this collection compares and critically examines the ways in which different countries are regulating healthcare in general, and health professions in particular, in the interest of users and the wider public.

HB: 9781447332268 £75.00
6 June 2018

Social determinants of health

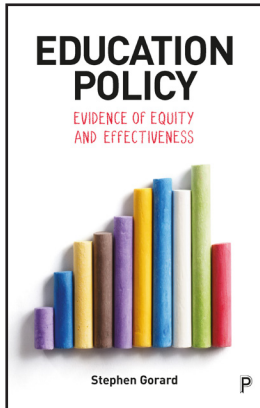

An interdisciplinary approach to social inequality and wellbeing

Adrian Bonner

Based on the 'rainbow model' of the social determinants of health, this book examines the key factors which can lead to poor quality of life, homelessness and reduced mortality.

PB: 9781447336853 £28.99
6 December 2017

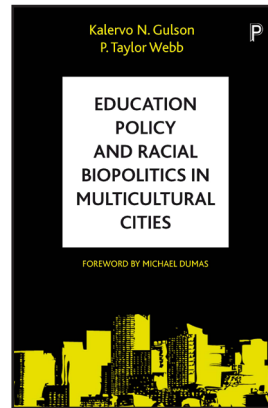

Education

Education policy
Evidence of equity and effectiveness
Stephen Gorard

Supported by 20 years of extensive, international research, this approachable text brings invaluable insights into the underlying problems within education policy, and proposes practical solutions for a brighter future.

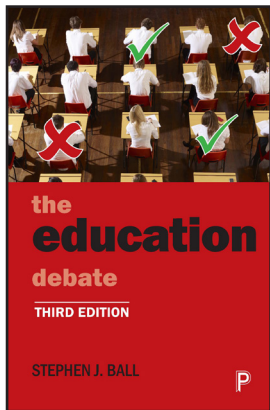

PB: 9781447342151 £24.99
5 September 2018

Education policy and racial biopolitics in multicultural cities
Kalervo N. Gulson and P. Taylor Webb

Gulson and Webb show how school choice can represent and manifest the hopes and fears, contestations and settlements of contemporary racial biopolitics and ethnic politics of education in multicultural cities.

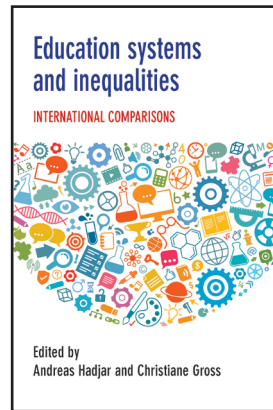

HB: 9781447320074 £70.00
26 July 2017

The education debate
Third edition
Stephen J. Ball

Education policy is hard to keep track of... a problem that this book solves. In this updated edition, Ball examines new areas of focus, including the increased interest of business in education and the impact of austerity and the increasing precarity within the sector.

PB: 9781447339281 £13.99
21 July 2017

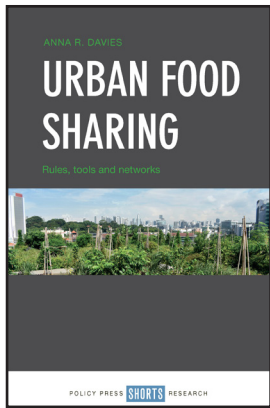

Education systems and inequalities
International comparisons
Andreas Hadjar and Christiane Gross

Education systems and inequalities compares different education systems and their impact on creating and sustaining social inequalities.

HB: 9781447326106 £80.00
8 June 2016

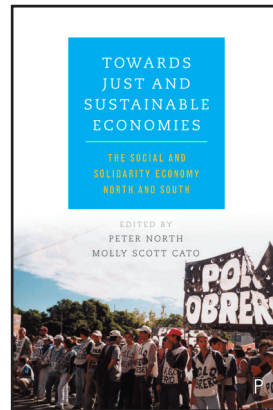

Environmental Studies

Urban food sharing
Rules, tools and networks
Anna Davies

Illustrated by global case studies and empirical data, this book explores the history and current practises of food sharing, whilst exploring the impact and potential of such sharing for cities.

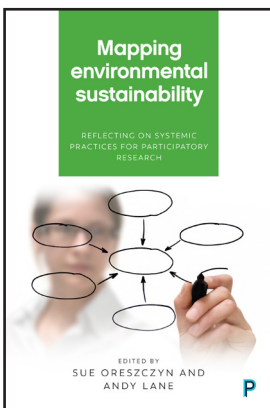

HB: 9781447349822 £45.00
1 April 2019

Towards just and sustainable economies
The social and solidarity economy North and South
Peter North and Molly Scott Cato

Academics from a range of disciplines and from a number of European and Latin American countries come together to question what it means to have a 'sustainable society' and to ask what role alternative social and solidarity economies can play.

PB: 9781447327233 £24.99
25 July 2018

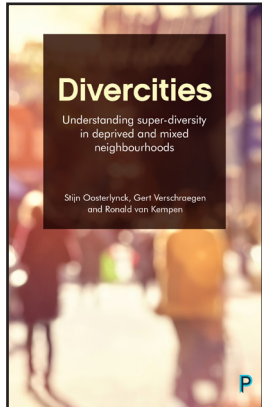

Mapping environmental sustainability
Reflecting on systemic practices for participatory research
Sue Oreszczyn and Andy Lane

Mapping environmental sustainability explains the development of visual mapping techniques with practical case studies that describe their application in environmental sustainability projects, from working with farmers and their networks, to using visual mapping with indigenous communities and managing coastal environments.

HB: 9781447331575 £75.00
6 September 2017

Urban Planning/Housing

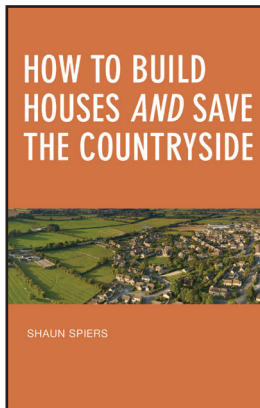

Divercities

Understanding super diversity in deprived and mixed neighbourhoods

Stijn Oosterlynck, Gert Verschraegen and Ronald van Kempen

Provides a comparative international perspective on superdiversity in cities, with explicit attention given to social inequality and social exclusion on a neighbourhood level.

HB: 9781447338178 £75.00
5 November 2018

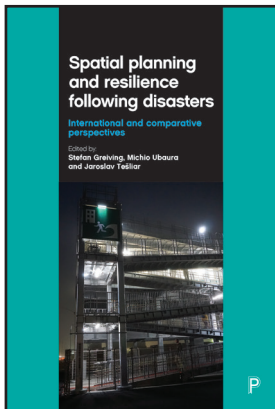

How to build houses and save the countryside

Shaun Spiers

Focusing on house building and conservation politics in England, Spiers uses his considerable experience and extensive research to demonstrate why the current model doesn't work, and why there needs to be both planning reform and a more active role for the state, which better includes local government.

PB: 9781447339991 £9.99
14 March 2018

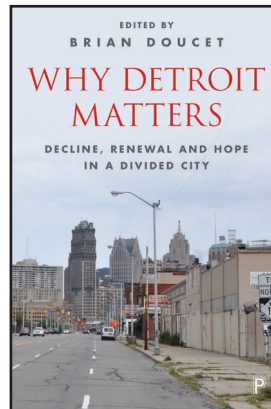

Spatial planning and resilience following disasters

International and comparative perspectives

Stefan Greiving, Michio Ubaura and Jaroslav Tešliar

International contributors from academia, research, policy and practice use their experience and knowledge to explore on-going efforts to improve spatial resilience across the globe and predict future trends.

PB: 9781447323594 £26.99
6 December 2017

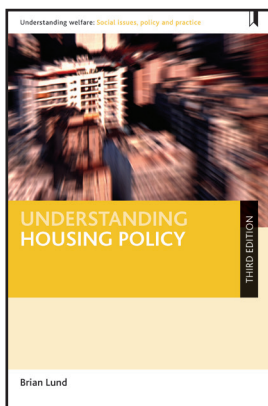

Why Detroit matters

Decline, renewal and hope in a divided city

Brian Doucet

This edited book examines why what happens in Detroit matters for other cities around the world. Bridging academic and non-academic voices, contributions from many of the leading scholars on Detroit are joined by some of the city's most influential writers, planners, artists and activists.

PB: 9781447327875 £25.99
6 April 2017

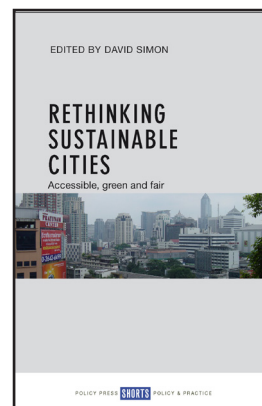

Understanding housing policy

Third edition

Brian Lund

Focusing on principles and theory and their application in the process of constructing housing policy, with boxed examples and case studies throughout, this fully revised 3rd edition addresses the range of socio-economic factors that have influenced UK housing policy in recent years.

PB: 9781447330448 £24.99
26 April 2017

Rethinking sustainable cities

Accessible, green and fair

David Simon

This book makes a significant contribution to the sustainable urbanisation agenda through authoritative interventions. It contextualises, assesses and explains the relevance and importance of three central characteristics of sustainable towns and cities everywhere; that they be accessible, green and fair.

PB: 9781447332848 £9.99
31 August 2016

Politics and International Relations

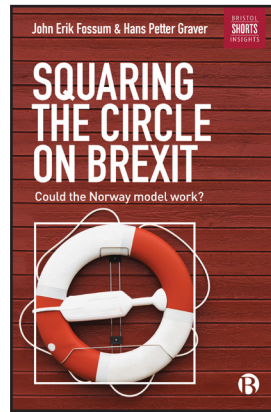

Understanding Brexit

A concise introduction

Tim Oliver

This book provides a concise introduction to the past, present and future of one of the most important and controversial topics in modern British politics, setting out in a clear and accessible way many of the fundamentals for understanding why Britain voted to leave the European Union and what happens next.

PB: 9781447346395 £19.99
30 July 2018

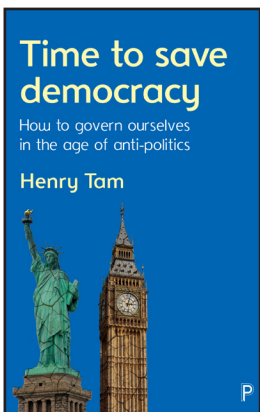

Squaring the circle on Brexit

Could the Norway model work?

John Erik Fossum and Hans Petter Graver

Two preeminent Norwegian scholars of politics and law offer a comprehensive first-hand account of Norway's relationship with the EU and how this affects the country's legal and political system, setting out what Britain can learn from Norway's experience and how transferable these lessons are.

PB: 9781529200300 £12.99
16 May 2018

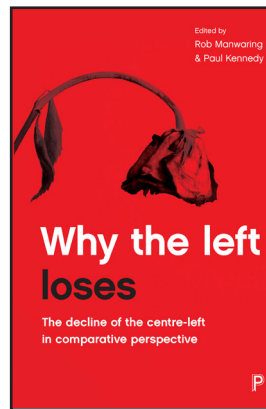

Time to save democracy

How to govern ourselves in the age of anti-politics

Henry Tam

In the face of seemingly insurmountable challenges, Henry Tam explores what should be done to revive democracy, setting out in a clear and accessible manner nine key areas where reforms are necessary to ensure we can govern ourselves more effectively.

PB: 9781447338246 £19.99
14 March 2018

Why the left loses

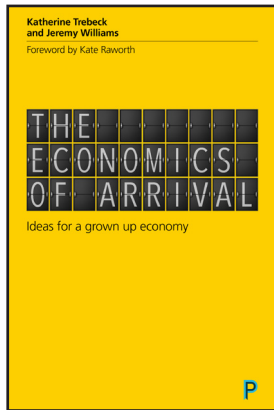

The Decline of the Centre-Left in Comparative Perspective

Rob Manwaring and Paul Kennedy

Bringing together a range of leading academics and experts on social democratic politics and policy, Why the Left Loses offers an international, comparative view of the changing political landscape, examining the degree to which the centre-left project is exhausted and is able to renew its message in a neo-liberal age.

PB: 9781447332695 £24.99
1 November 2017

Economics and Society

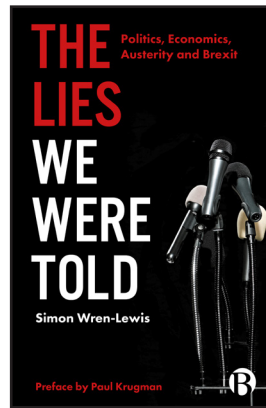

The economics of arrival

Ideas for a grown-up economy

Katherine Trebeck and Jeremy Williams

In this ground-breaking book, Trebeck and Williams challenge us to make ourselves at home with economic wealth, to ensure that everyone is included. They explore the possibility of 'Arrival', urging us to move from enlarging the economy to improving it, and the benefits this would bring for all.

PB: 9781447337263 £14.99
15 January 2019

The lies we were told

Politics, Economics, Austerity and Brexit

Simon Wren-Lewis

Simon Wren-Lewis' widely-read Mainly Macro blog is an influential resource for policymakers, academics and social commentators. This book tells how damaging political and economic events of recent years became inevitable and serves as a warning to avert future disasters on this scale.

PB: 9781529202137 £14.99
7 November 2018

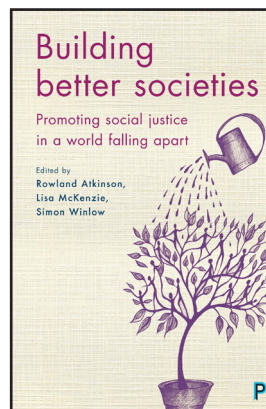

Leading public sector innovation (second edition)

Co-creating for a better society

Christian Bason

Thoroughly revised to take account of the latest literature and international developments in the field and drawing on global research and practical examples, Bason illustrates the key triggers and practices of public sector innovation.

PB: 9781447336242 £23.99
18 June 2018

Building better societies

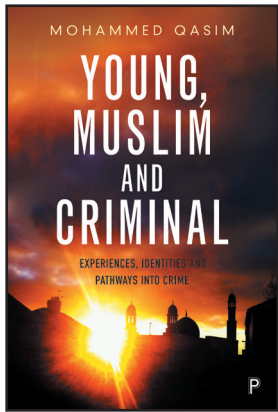

Promoting social justice in a world falling apart

Rowland Atkinson, Lisa Mckenzie and Simon Winlow

This book looks at what is needed to prevent the proliferation of harm and the gradual collapse of civil society. A wide range of expert contributors outline what might help to make better societies and which mechanisms, interventions and evidence are needed when we think about a better society.

PB: 9781447332039 £18.99
31 May 2017

Special Interest Backlist

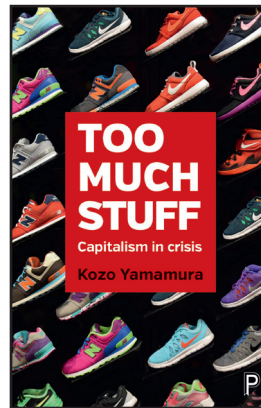

Young, Muslim and criminal Experiences, identities and pathways into crime

Mohammed Qasim

Qasim gained unique first-hand insight into the multifaceted lives of a group of young British male Muslims who offend after spending 4 years studying them. He unwraps their lives, explores their identities and explains what role religion and Pakistani culture play in their criminal behaviour.

PB: 9781447341505 £23.99
24 January 2018

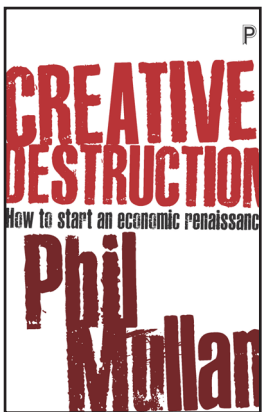

Too much stuff

Capitalism in crisis

Kozo Yamamura

We now enjoy the highest living standard in history yet spend more of our income on pointless luxury. Instead, we should tax more in order to invest much more in societal needs, which will in turn reinvigorate the economy and reduce economic inequality and environmental degradation.

PB: 9781447335696 £9.99
21 March 2018

Creative destruction

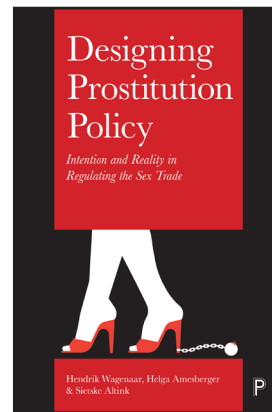

How to start an economic renaissance

Phil Mullan

A new technological revolution is needed, backed by political and cultural change to address Western economic stagnation. This means embracing the major disruption required to make our companies and workforce focus on embryonic technological sectors.

PB: 9781447336112 £12.99
29 March 2017

Translation rights sold: China

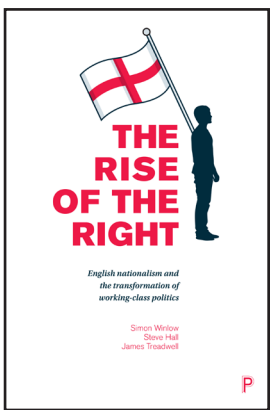

Designing prostitution policy

Intention and reality in regulating the sex trade

Hendrik Wagenaar, Helga Amesberger and Sietske Altink

The book offers a detailed analysis of the design and implementation of prostitution policy at the local level.

HB: 9781447324249 £75.00
26 April 2017

The rise of the Right

English nationalism and the transformation of working-class politics

Simon Winlow, Steve Hall and James Treadwell

This book is the first to offer an uncompromising look at the English Defence League (EDL), aiming to alter thinking about working-class politics and the rise of right-wing nationalism in de-industrialised English towns and cities.

PB: 9781447328483 £12.99
18 January 2017

Translation rights sold: Japan

The new fundraisers

Who organises charitable giving in contemporary society?

Beth Breeze

This is the first empirically-grounded and theorised account of the identity, characteristics and motivation of fundraisers in the UK. Based on original data collected during a 3-year study of over 1,200 fundraisers, the book argues that it is not possible to understand charitable giving without accounting for the role of fundraising.

PB: 9781447325024 £24.99
30 October 2017

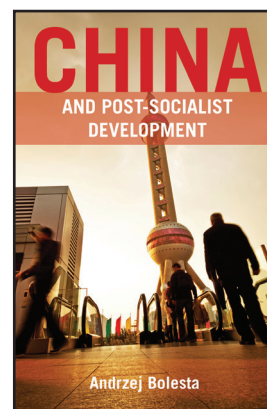

Reclaiming feminism

Challenging everyday misogyny

Miriam E. David

Miriam David celebrates the achievements of international feminists as activists and scholars and provides a critique of the expansion of global higher education which seems to mask their pioneering zeal and zest for knowledge.

PB: 9781447328179 £14.99
15 June 2016

China and post-socialist development

Andrzej Bolesta

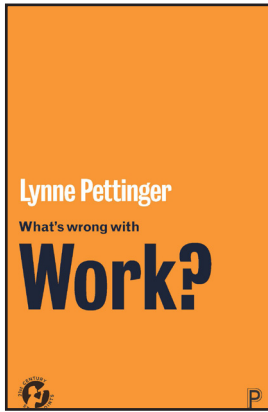

In China and Post-Socialist Development the emergence of China as an economic superpower is examined and framed within the context of the East Asian developmental miracle, arguing that the Chinese approach – broadly in opposition to the neo-liberal doctrine – has brought impressive results.

HB: 9781447321507 £72.99
19 November 2014

Translation rights sold: China

Featured Series: 21st Century Standpoints

Accessible, social and political commentary on the 21st century challenges facing our lives:

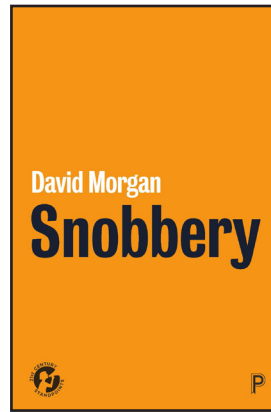

What's wrong with work?

Lynne Pettinger

What's wrong with work shows that how workers are treated has wide implications beyond the lives of workers themselves.

Recognising gender, race, class and global differences, the book considers the ways that formal work is often dependent on informal work and concludes by considering what might make work better.

PB: 9781447340089 £12.99
1 April 2019

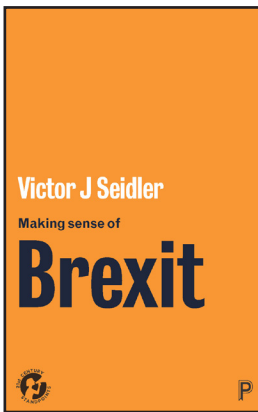

Snobbery

David Morgan

Snobbery matters because it is the way in which social divisions are built. In these times of growing social inequality, snobbery is becoming ever more pertinent. This book draws on literature, popular culture and autobiography as well as sociology and history to take a fresh and engaging look at this key social and cultural issue.

PB: 9781447340348 £12.99
12 December 2018

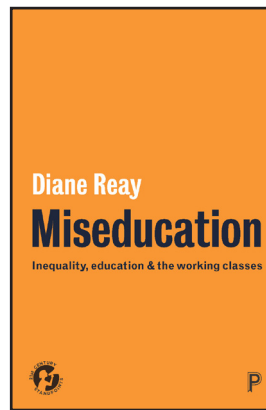

Making sense of Brexit

Democracy, Europe and uncertain futures

Victor Seidler

What can we learn about our society and the need to listen to each other in order to make sense of Brexit within a wider world? This accessible book addresses the causes and implications of Brexit, exploring the anger against political elites as people felt estranged from a political process that no longer expressed their will.

PB: 9781447345206 £14.99
31 January 2018

Miseducation

Inequality, education and the working classes

Diane Reay

This book brings Brian Jackson and Dennis Marsden's pioneering Education and the Working Class from 1962 up-to-date for the 21st century and reveals what we can do to achieve a fairer education system.

PB: 9781447330653 £12.99
11 October 2017

Translation rights

Foreign translation rights may be licensed for most of our titles, and you can view our full range of titles by visiting our subject pages or downloading a PDF version of our print catalogue at bristoluniversitypress.co.uk.

Please note that translation rights can only be licensed to registered publishing companies. If you are a publisher or agent and would like to receive details or samples of our forthcoming publications please contact Jo Greig, Sales and Marketing Director:

Bristol University Press, 1-9 Old Park Hill, Clifton, Bristol BS2 8BB

E: jo.greig@bristol.ac.uk

T: +44 (0) 11739 45965

Bristol University Press and Policy Press

Bristol University Press is unique: it is a young university press with a bold vision that emerges out of Policy Press' long-held, critically-acclaimed reputation as a key publisher on social issues, with an ethos of social justice and respect for diversities.

We are committed to publishing the highest quality scholarship in the social sciences and aligned disciplines and want our work to make a positive contribution, from the advancement of ideas through to practical implementation.